quante havor and aroma, attogether transcension, in its cortial and medicinal properties, to any Holland gin heretofore known.

Amid the influx of inferior distillations with which the market is now flooded, physicians find no little difficulty in procuring a good and pine gin which they can prescribe with confluence in its beneficial effects. As an importer of twenty years' standing is the city of Now York, and possessing a matured experience in the manufacture of Holland gin especially. Log to submit to your attention my "Aromatic Schiedam Schnappa" as one which cannot fail to realize your endough expectations, and I shall be happy to forward to you a bottle of it, free of charce, in answer to a letter intimating your rendiness to accept it.

It is now scarsely one year since I have prepared and distributed my Schiedam of no schusively for medicinal purposes, yet within that brief period I have received numerous letters, but from physicians and patients, testifying to its reality extraordinary emeacy in gravel, incipiont dropsy, and allections of the kineys and bladder generally: also in dyspeptic maladies, when taken in proper quantities as add drink, and expecially at dinner, is found by uniform experience to be eminently ethescopy in the meet obstinate cases, when even the best of the scenar paredicle, and save failed to afford more than temperary relief, and I have no doubt that it would yield similar results, with precision and certainty, in your own professional experience. The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is put up in strong bottles, pints and quarts, neatly covered and labelled, with my name embosed on the bottle, also a fact shillie of my signature on the label, and my scal on the cork, with an essay upon its properties.

Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills.—A singular combination, but vory effectual, as the following will show:—

New York, Novamber 29, 1872.

Knowing, from experience, the valuable qualities of Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills. I have for some time back considered it my duty, and made it my business, to make those articles known wherever I went among my friends. A short time ago I became acquainted with worms and liver complaint at the same time, and had been suffering for some two months. Through my persuasion she purchased one bottle of Ur. M'Lane's Vermifuge, and one box of Liver Pills, which she took according to directions. The roalls was, she passed a large quantity of worms, and thinks that one box more of the pills will restore her to perioet beaith. Her name and residence can be Learned by affing on E. L. Theell, Druggist, concer of Rutgers and Monroe streets.

P. S.—Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills can both be obtained at any of the respectable drug stores in this city. Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills. There are other vermifuges and pills now before the public, but all comparatively worthless.

NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—A MEETING OF the subscribers to the New York Academy of Music will be held on Saturday Evening, the 7th of May, at 7'5 o'clock, at the Stuyweanat Institute, 659 Broadway, for the purpose of organizing the Association and the election of directors. A punctual attendance is particularly requested. By order of the Commissioners. WILLIAM H. PAINE, Secretary

A punctual attendance is particularly requested. By order of the Commissioners. WILLIAM H. PAINE. Secretary P. EWARD OF HONESTY.—A PASSENGER ON BOARD IV. of the Pittsburg train, arrived on Sunday morning. May it, lost his pocket book, containing a large sum of money. It was picked up by an honest boy, who ferroted out the owner, and returned it, but he did not as much as thank him for his trouble. The passenger had a patent brick monder, which ho was bringing on to the dity.—From the Pitladelphia Sun, May 3.

The facts of the above circumstances are simply these:—Mr. S. C. Ripley, a resident New Yorker, whilst travelling in the cars, gave notice of the loss of his procket book, and described the contents. The Conductor made search for it, yet although it was known to all in the cars, a young man in the saat, immediately behind Mr. Ripley's, and who was among the first to hear of the loss, and nothing in regard to the finding it, until seeing the suspicious of Mr. Ripley aroused, and that from hints thrown out search might be made, after keeping possession of the money for the space of one hour at least, and observing that he was suspected, he made a virtue of necessity, and gave up the money. The passengers whose testimony can be given thought it very strange that the individual, twenty to twenty-five years of age, and not "a loy," should retain the property in his own possession so long after streamous isquiries were made. The case, properly speaking, would seem rather a subject for consure than one for reward. In justice to Mr. Ripley the San should copy this article.
